

Leith Hill Musical Festival - Composition Competition 2017

We were delighted to receive a large number of entries for this Composition Competition, in which composers were invited to write a short piece for Lower Voices (TBB) and piano accompaniment. There was much interesting music received for the Judges to study and enjoy, in a variety of musical styles and expressive language. The 1st-place winning entry will be performed as part of the LHMF 2019 Festival, and the standard of compositions was such that consideration will also be given for the inclusion of other entries.

1st Place: 'A Poison Tree' - Charles West

2nd Place: 'Seventy Three' - Janet Wheeler

3rd Place: 'Go, lovely Rose' - Mark Browse

Thank you to all the composers who submitted compositions in this Competition, which has undoubtedly produced many pieces which will be enjoyed by Lower Voice choirs.
